VCE 540 | THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS OF VALUE-CREATING EDUCATION | 4 quarter hours (Graduate)

This course introduces candidates to the Eastern and Western theoretical foundations undergirding the educational philosophies and practices of Tsunesaburo Makiguchi, Josei Toda, and Daisaku Ikeda. Although, theoretical foundations of Makiguchi’s early curriculum theorizing will be addressed, special focus will be placed on the Eastern and Western perspectives and practices informing Makiguchi’s value-creating pedagogy and Ikeda’s value-creating education.

VCE 550 | EDUCATION FOR GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP | 4 quarter hours (Graduate)

This course examines education for global citizenship, or what is also called cosmopolitanism and world citizenship. Global citizenship is the idea that human individuals, irrespective of place of birth or cultural background, are citizens of the world. This course explores the idea of global citizenship and its implications for questions of justice, culture, and education. The course engages global citizenship from its historical development in the Western philosophical tradition, beginning in Ancient Greece, through the Enlightenment and into its most recent incarnation as a response to conditions of globalization. It will consider the manifestations of global citizenship beyond the West, with an especial focus on global citizenship in the pedagogy of value-creating educators Tsunesaburo Makiguchi, Josei Toda, and Daisaku Ikeda. Drawing resources from various disciplines (political theory, anthropology, moral philosophy, curriculum theory), this course seeks to understand the potential and limitations of global citizenship to respond to contemporary issues in education in times of globalization.
VCE 560 | DIALOGUE AND EDUCATION | 4 quarter hours
(Graduate)
This course examines dialogue in, as, and for education. It explores the role of dialogue across difference and dialogue relative to questions of justice, culture, and education. The course engages dialogue as conceptualized from various educational philosophers and in various contexts, including its most recent incarnation as a necessity in an interdependent, multilingual, and globalized world. The course will consider the manifestations of dialogue and education beyond the West, with an especial focus on dialogue for global citizenship in the pedagogy of value-creating educators Tsunesaburo Makiguchi, Josei Toda, and Daisaku Ikeda. Drawing resources from various disciplines (political theory, anthropology, literary theory, moral philosophy, education), this course seeks to understand the potential and limitations of dialogue in response to contemporary issues in education in times of globalization.

VCE 570 | ANALYZING RESEARCH AND PRACTICE IN SOKA AND NON-SOKA SCHOOLS | 4 quarter hours
(Graduate)
This course examines the extant research on and practice of value-creating education. Special focus will be placed on examining research and practice in the 15 Soka kindergartens, schools, and universities founded by Daisaku Ikeda across Asia and the Americas, as well as in non-Soka kindergartens, schools, and universities inspired by value-creating pedagogy worldwide. Attention will be given to questions such as what constitutes value-creating education and "Soka education" in practice by students, teachers, leaders, paraprofessionals, and institutions.

VCE 580 | PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF VALUE-CREATING EDUCATION (LOCAL AND GLOBAL CONTEXTS) | 4 quarter hours
(Graduate)
This course engages candidates in applying value-creating education in local and global contexts. A special focus is given to navigating value-creating education’s twin realms of cultivating knowledge and wisdom and individual and social benefit. Candidates will actively incorporate content from at least six VCE courses on theory, research, and practice into program and curriculum design, unit and lesson planning, assessment and evaluation, and teacher and leader dispositions. Class requirement: at least 6 VCE courses (or equivalent)
