

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE (MINOR)

The minor in American Sign Language at DePaul University provides students with a basic linguistic and cultural background, develops their creative and critical thinking skills, and helps to prepare them for a career in a multicultural world.

The minor consists of a total of 5 courses in American Sign Language at the 200/300-level.