

APPLIED DIPLOMACY (MA), COMBINED BACHELOR'S + MASTER'S DEGREE

---

Note: The first admit term for this program is Spring 2024.

The combined degree students can select three courses among the following during their undergraduate degree:

| Course  | Title                                       | Quarter Hours |
|---------|---|---------------|
| DPL 400 | DIPLOMACY: ITS FOUNDATIONS AND FUTURES      | 4             |
| DPL 401 | TRANSPROFESSIONAL MEDIATION AND NEGOTIATION | 4             |
| DPL 402 | CITIZEN DIPLOMACY IN THE 21ST CENTURY       | 4             |
| INT 402 | INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY             | 4             |
| MPS 511 | SUSTAINABLE INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT       | 4             |
| PSC 400 | INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS THEORY              | 4             |

In addition to the three graduate courses, students complete the MA in Applied Diplomacy (<https://catalog.depaul.edu/programs/applied-diplomacy-ma/>) degree by taking an additional 38 credit hours (9 graduate courses).

Students will follow the graduate degree program requirements for the term they are admitted to the Applied Diplomacy MA program.

The universal combined program with the MA in Applied Diplomacy degree will be administered by the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences.