

DIPLOMACY AND INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC SERVICE, APPLIED DIPLOMACY (MA)

---

The Diplomacy and International Public Service concentration provides students with a foundation for applying the tools and understanding of diplomatic practices to mediation, conflict resolution, advocacy and leadership within international non-governmental organizations. Students will have the opportunity to place the study and practice of diplomacy in conversation with the disciplines of management, ethics, international political economy, public policy and international relations.

Students in the Diplomacy and International Public Service concentration are required to take four courses from the following list:

Course	Title	Quarter Hours
Choose four from the following:		16
MPS 510	INTERNATIONAL DIMENSIONS OF PUBLIC SERVICE
MPS 513	VOLUNTEERISM IN GLOBAL CIVIL SOCIETY
MPS 520	VALUES-CENTERED LEADERSHIP
MPS 525	WORKING WITH NONPROFIT BOARDS
MPS 529	STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT AND PLANNING
MPS 594	ETHICAL LEADERSHIP IN PUBLIC SERVICE
MPS 611	MANAGEMENT OF INTERNATIONAL NGOs
MPS 612	INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY
MPS 613	COMPARATIVE PUBLIC POLICY
MPS 614	INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS SEMINAR
MPS 615	MANAGEMENT OF INTERCULTURAL DIVERSITY
MPS 616	INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND CONFLICT MANAGEMENT	