CRIMINOLOGY (MINOR)

Students who minor in Criminology will explore the social, political, and economic influences that shape crime and punishment. The following curriculum chart provides the required and elective courses that count toward the minor. A total of 24 credit hours from 6 courses is required for completion of the minor.

1. Three required courses (12 credit hours):
   - CRIM 101
   - CRIM 205
   - A 300-level CRIM course

2. Three elective courses from the following areas (12 credit hours):
   - Criminology Major Core (https://catalog.depaul.edu/programs/criminology-ba/#majorrequirementstext)
   - Concentration in Community Justice (https://catalog.depaul.edu/programs/criminology-ba/community-justice-concentration-criminology-ba/)
   - Concentration in Criminal Justice Administration (https://catalog.depaul.edu/programs/criminology-ba/criminal-justice-administration-concentration-criminology-ba/)
   - Concentration in Race, Class, Gender and Justice (https://catalog.depaul.edu/programs/criminology-ba/race-class-gender-justice-concentration-criminology-ba/)
   - A related course from another department (with program director approval)