

FUNDAMENTALS OF PSYCHOLOGY (MINOR)

The Fundamentals of Psychology minor will give you a foundation in the major topic areas in psychology. This minor is good for people who want to round out their current major with core courses in psychology or think they might want to pursue a psychology oriented major in graduate school (e.g., social work).

This minor is only for non-psychology majors and a maximum of one psychology minor may be earned by a student.

Psychology majors cannot earn a minor in Fundamentals of Psychology.

Six psychology courses are required, including:
