

INDUSTRIAL- ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (MINOR)

The Industrial-Organizational Psychology minor allows you to explore the behaviors that contribute to a successful or problematic work environment. This minor complements a major course of study tied closely with businesses.

This minor is only for non-psychology majors and a maximum of one psychology minor may be earned by a student.

Psychology majors cannot earn a minor in Industrial-Organizational Psychology.

Six psychology courses are required, including:

Course	Title	Quarter Hours
PSY 105	INTRODUCTORY PSYCHOLOGY I	4
PSY 106	INTRODUCTORY PSYCHOLOGY II	4
PSY 380	INDUSTRIAL AND ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY (Offered at least twice a year.)	4
Select at least one course from the I-O approved list:		4
PSY 355	GROUPS AND ORGANIZATIONS
PSY 381	PERSONNEL PSYCHOLOGY
PSY 382	ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR
PSY 385	TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT IN ORGANIZATIONS
PSY 388	TOPICAL SEMINAR IN INDUSTRIAL - ORGANIZATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

Select any two additional psychology courses. It is recommended that they be from the above list, but it is not required 8