

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES CERTIFICATE

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

OVERVIEW

The International Studies certificate is designed to provide students with key competencies in critical thinking, research and data gathering in international contexts. The certificate is an option for people who want to cultivate their ability to engage in critical analysis of international issues and apply that critical analysis in their places of employment.

PROGRAM FEATURES

Social justice. Our course work challenges students to analyze the multiple ways in which inequality and oppression work, and to strategize for social change in ways that bridge theory and practice. Students are expected to develop socially responsible, ethical frameworks for their work that are informed by historical consciousness of transnational contexts.

Curriculum. Students begin this program by enrolling in two foundation courses, Critical Social Theory and International Political Economy, which provide the critical frameworks for subsequent classes. Building on this foundation, students select from a series of core courses that reflect topical debates and highlight themes of race, class, gender, power and inequality.

Evening Courses. Classes are offered primarily in the evening at the Lincoln Park campus.
