

COMMERCIAL ITALIAN CONCENTRATION, ITALIAN (BA)

Students choosing the Commercial Italian concentration are interested in complementing their advanced intercultural language study with a foundation in international business skills. The bridge courses in the concentration (ITA 320 and MGT 300) integrate students' knowledge across disciplines, and the two additional electives allow them to further explore their area of interest in business.

After declaring the Italian major with the Commercial concentration, students should meet with the Italian Program Director, who will work together with advisors in the College of Business to ensure that students are maximizing opportunities to double count their chosen concentration courses in order to efficiently achieve their postgraduate career goals.
