

LATIN AMERICAN AND LATINO STUDIES (MINOR)

The Latin American and Latino Studies minor will help you explore the cultural contributions of the Latin American community to the global community and the traditions that developed in the region.

Course Requirements

Core Requirements (2 courses / 8 credit hours)

Course	Title	Quarter Hours
Select two of the following:		8
LST 200	FOUNDING MYTHS AND CULTURAL CONQUEST IN LATIN AMERICA
LST 201	STRUGGLE AND RESISTANCE IN LATIN AMERICA
LST 202	CONSTRUCTING LATINO COMMUNITIES
LST 203	MEDIA AND CULTURAL STUDIES ACROSS THE AMERICAS

Areas of Concentration (4 courses / 16 credit hours)

- Four elective courses, to be chosen in consultation with a program advisor. Minors are encouraged to take LST 390. Minors are suggested to focus in one of the four Areas of Concentration:
 - Cultural Studies of the Americas
 - Individualized
 - Transformations Over Time in the Americas
 - Latina/o/x Studies

Note: All Spanish (SPN) courses may qualify as electives for the LALS Minor.

Study Abroad Experience

Students are strongly encouraged to participate in DePaul's quarter abroad program in Merida, Mexico or one of the university's other short-term study abroad programs in Latin America.

Internship Experience

Students are strongly encouraged to include an internship as part of their academic experience. Internships may be arranged with either a Latino community organization, a U.S.-based organization that focuses on Latin America, or, as part of a study abroad experience, with a public service organization in a Latin American country.

Students majoring in Latin American and Latino Studies (BA) are restricted from earning this minor.
