

SPEECH LANGUAGE PATHOLOGY (MINOR)

As a Speech Language Pathology minor, you will understand the basic human communication and swallowing processes, integrate information pertaining to normal human development across the life span, and understand the nature of speech, language, hearing, and communication disorders and differences.

Course Requirements

Course	Title	Quarter Hours
SLP 101	INTRODUCTION TO COMMUNICATION SCIENCES AND DISORDERS	4
SLP 210	PHONETICS	4
SLP 310	NORMAL CHILD LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT ¹	4
SLP 320	INTRODUCTION TO SPEECH SOUND DISORDERS	4
SLP 330	INTRODUCTION TO AUDIOLOGY	4
SLP 332	AURAL REHABILITATION	4
SLP 340	ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY OF THE SPEECH, LANGUAGE, SWALLOWING & HEARING MECHANISM	4
SLP 342	SPEECH AND HEARING SCIENCE	4

¹ Education majors may take ECE 307, Language Development, instead of SLP 310, Normal Child Language Development.