SOCIOLOGY (MINOR)

The Sociology minor is designed to provide you with the critical thinking skills needed to effectively observe people in social groups and institutions. The program offers an overview of sociological research and theory.

Course Requirements

Course	Title	Quarter Hours
Select one of the following:		4
SOC 101	INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLOGY
SOC 105	SOCIAL PROBLEMS
Select four courses from the 200/300-level SOC course offerings		16

Courses in theory, research methods, and statistics are recommended, but not required.

Students majoring in Sociology are restricted from earning this minor.