

JURISDICTION

The University may initiate a Student Conduct Process when a student or student organization is alleged to have violated a policy as follows:

1. The alleged policy violation occurred on-campus.
2. The alleged policy violation occurred on or off-campus at a University activity, program, function, or sponsored event.
3. The alleged policy violation occurred off campus (including in online communities) and involves a member of the campus community (student, faculty or staff).
4. The alleged policy violation involved the student or student organization using their status as a member of the DePaul community.
5. The alleged policy violation affects the University or its community members.

For student conduct cases involving the Sexual & Relationship Violence Prevention and Response (<https://offices.depaul.edu/secretary/policies-procedures/policies/Documents/Sexual%20and%20Relationship%20Violence%20Prevention%20and%20Response.pdf>) policy or the Formal Title IX Sexual Harassment Policies and Procedures (<https://offices.depaul.edu/secretary/policies-procedures/policies/Documents/Formal%20Title%20IX%20Sexual%20Harassment.pdf>), please refer to the information on jurisdiction in those policies.
