

INITIAL MEETING AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION GATHERING

In this initial meeting, the Dean of Students Office will explain the university-initiated temporary medical withdrawal process to the student. The Dean of Students Office will review with the student the information that appears to indicate that the student has demonstrated behavior consistent with one or more of the criteria listed above.

The Dean of Students Office will give the student an opportunity to respond to the information orally at the meeting. The student will also be given an opportunity to respond to any interim restrictions that have been put in place. If the student would like to submit additional information in response to the information provided, the student may choose to do so. This information could include, for example, a written response, a request from the student that the Dean of Students Office speak with a qualified care provider, or other documentation.

If the student wishes to submit additional information, the Dean of Students Office will work with the student to develop a reasonable timeline for submitting this information, balancing the need for a prompt decision with the student's need to provide information.
