

DEMONSTRATIONS AND OTHER SIMILAR EVENTS

DePaul recognizes that students may organize or participate in demonstrations and other similar events in order to make their voices heard and effectuate change.

The University has an obligation to ensure the safety of individuals, the protection of property, and the continuance of University business. As such, the University will have the final determination as to the time, place, and manner of all demonstrations and other similar events on-campus.

All demonstrations and other similar events on or adjacent to campus must be orderly and peaceful. Demonstrations or other similar events on or adjacent to campus may not impede passage. Demonstrations or other similar events on or adjacent to campus may not create excessive noise. Demonstrations or other similar events on or adjacent to campus may not interfere with the business operations of the University.

Please see Guiding Principles for Speech and Expression at DePaul University as well as Demonstration Guidelines here (<https://offices.depaul.edu/secretary/policies-procedures/speech-expression/Pages/default.aspx>).
