

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND RESIDENCE LIFE

Housing and Residence Life at DePaul University fosters inclusive, supportive on-campus communities where graduate students can thrive academically and personally. Graduate students are typically housed at the University Center, located near DePaul's Loop Campus, offering convenient access to academic and professional resources. Through well-maintained living spaces and a dedicated team, we provide a safe and engaging environment that encourages connection, professional growth, and a strong sense of community. Our team is committed to offering meaningful opportunities for involvement, responding to resident needs with care, and upholding community standards to create a respectful and supportive living environment.
