Co-Curricular Learning Outcomes

As a result of participating in Center for Students with Disabilities program-areas, students will be able to:

• Articulate accommodation services relative to their specific disabilities.
• Articulate academic strategies and behaviors relevant to support their academic needs.
• Describe the benefits of belonging to supportive social communities.