

SCHOLARSHIPS

Each year DePaul awards more than $49 million to incoming freshman students in scholarships, in varying types and amounts, to qualified students who exhibit academic excellence, artistic talent, strong leadership or service to their communities.

Scholarships and assistantships are awarded at the program level by your college office and academic department. Please consult your college or school for additional information. You may also visit DePaul Scholarship Connect (<https://depaul.academicworks.com/opportunities/>) throughout the year to see specific internal and external scholarship opportunities available.
