

LIBRARIES

The DePaul University Library is a hub for teaching and learning with resources, services and spaces to support students' academic and personal success. The University Library includes the John T. Richardson Library (<https://library.depaul.edu/about/locations/lincoln-park/Pages/default.aspx>) in Lincoln Park and the Loop Library (<https://library.depaul.edu/about/locations/loop/Pages/default.aspx>) on the 10th floor of the DePaul Center. The Vincent G. Rinn Law Library (<https://law.depaul.edu/library/Pages/default.aspx>) is part of the College of Law and is located in the Lewis Center on the Loop Campus.

Resources

- The Library provides access to databases, scholarly journals and articles, books and e-books, streaming media, primary sources and more online through our website (<https://library.depaul.edu/Pages/default.aspx>) and at our locations.
- Students can borrow materials from 90+ libraries through I-Share and request articles through interlibrary loan (<https://depaulib.illiad.oclc.org/illiad/logon.html>).
- The library's collection also includes DVDs, CDs, sheet music, and loanable technology such as digital cameras, microphones, phone chargers and more.

Research Help

- Librarians provide research assistance (<https://library.depaul.edu/get-help/ask-a-librarian/Pages/default.aspx>) in person, and via email, phone, text, chat or Zoom.
- Students can also make a research consultation (<https://library.depaul.edu/get-help/ask-a-librarian/Pages/Make-an-Appointment.aspx>) appointment to meet with a librarian who specializes in a specific subject.

Special Collections and Archives

- Special Collections and Archives (<https://library.depaul.edu/special-collections/Pages/default.aspx>) provides access to primary sources, rare books, maps and archives in their reading room and online.
- Collections strengths include social justice, Vincentian heritage and DePaul University history.

Work Spaces

- The Library provides collaborative, individual, and quiet study spaces, including reservable (<https://libcal.depaul.edu/>) group and solo study areas.
- Computers, white boards, printers, copiers and scanners are available.
- Students can access audio and video studios, equipment and software, and a green screen room in our technology work spaces (<https://library.depaul.edu/technology/spaces/Pages/Media-Production-Rooms.aspx>).
